for tuition is the same, and for the use of room, furniture, library, &c., $25 per session. There is an admission fee of $10, and a small charge each session for contingencies. Fuel and lights are fur-nished at cost, and washing at 371 cents per dozen. The necessary college expenses of a boarding stu-dent will not exceed $150 or $190 per annum. All the bills are payable one half at the beginning, and the balance at the middle of the session.

With a view of giving to the different departments of instruction a wider extension, and at the same time of meeting a public want by rendering the advantage of the college available to a larger number and a more varied class of students, some important changes have been made in the order and arrangement of the students. A new course has been adopted, styled the Scientific Course, and the degree of Batchelor of Philosophy (B. P.) attached to it. It will occupy about three years, and will embrace all the studies of the regular course for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, with the exception of the ancient languages. This course ill be specially adapted to those who wish to obtain what is called a practical education, as the mathematical and scientific studies will have greater prominence than usual, particularly in their application to the arts and business of life. Those who may wish to become practical surveyors, engineers, or agriculturists, will be enabled, with the advice of the faculty, to select their studies with special reference to those objects, and will receive the aid of lectures and illustrations. The doors of the College will also be opened to those who may wish, under its general regulations, to pursue any branch of study for any length of time. They may under the direction of the faculty, select such sub jects as are suited to their views and objects in life, and, on examination, may receive a regular certificate of their standing and proficiency in the

The number of officers and instructors has lately been increased, and others will be added as the wants of the several departments may require. Measures are in progress for filling immediately the chair of chemistry, geology, mineralogy, and botany in a manner that will add greatly to the in-

The study of practical anatomy may be cuted with the most ample facilities, and at very trifling expense.

Clinical lectures are regularly given at the college infirmary and Richmond almshouse. The infirmary, under the same roof with the college, and subject to the entire control of the faculty, is at all times well filled with medical and surgical cases, and furnishes peculiar facilities for clinical instruction. Many surgical operations are performed in presence of the class; and the students, being freely admitted to the wards, enjoy, under the guidance of the professors, unusual epportunities for becoming familiar with the symptoms,

DROSPECTUS OF THE UNITED States Illustrated.—Under the title of the nited States Illustrated, has been commenced the publication of a great national work, of a very costly and magnificent description, for which the liberal patronage of the American public is confidently expected. It will appear in parts with such promptitude that two volumes will be completed before the close of the present year. These volumes will be issued simultaneously, one being ex-clusively devoted to eastern and the other to western subjects. Each part will contain four steel engravings, from original drawings by eminent artists, representing either some remarkable view from the splendid landscape scenery of the country, or some public edifice, whose architectural heauty or historical character entitles it to such commemoration. Ten parts will compose a vol-

The present volume of the western section will contain, among other illustrations, views of the grand and peculiar scenery of the Mississipp river, from its origin at Itasca Lake down to its mouth, below New Orleans. In a similar manner the volume of the eastern section will represent only such subjects from the sea-board States as are most striking and truly American.
But if excellence has thus been aimed at in the engravings, the literary department also will have engravings, the interary department also will have every attention bestowed upon it. No expense has been spared to render the work in this respect also a national monument. Many of the best and popular writers of the country are engaged as regular contributors, and the editorial direction of whole has been entrusted to the care of Mr Charles A. Dana, whose name is a sufficient guar antee that the work will be one of solid merit, as well as of elegance and beauty. Each number will contain from 12 to 16 pages letter-press, printed in elegant type on splendid 4to paper.

With the last numbers each subscriber or purchaser of the two volumes, will receive to each section of the work an allegoric title page, exe cuted in a high style of art, and as a premium, a magnificent steel engraving, 36 by 25 inches, rep-resenting The Battle of Bunker Hill, from Trumbull's great picture, whose superb execution ren-ders it a costly ornament, and whose subject will make it dear to every American.

THE ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE OF Art.—The number published on the 1st of July eing the commencement of a new volume, affords an excellent opportunity for new subscribers to commence the work.

The numbers already published of the Illustrated Magazine of Art have at once placed it at the head of the magazines or any publication of the day, and no expense will be spared to render it, in very respect, worthy of its name: a Magazine of Art. To render this mere strikingly apparent, the proprietor has determined to incorporate with "The Magazine of Art," the "History and Works of the Painters of all Nations." This splendid series includes biographical notices of various painters of celebrity, descriptive catalogues of their erformances, and beautifully engraved copies of heir chief works. The works of one painter will ppear in each monthly part. The engravings preparing for future numbers are in the hands of the first artists of America. England, France, and Germany. A series of tales of the most interesting description are in the course of publication, including "The School of Life," written and illustrated by Anna Mary, daughter of William and Mary Howitt, with endaughter of William and Mary Howitt, with engravings, from drawings made expressly by the authoress. Also, an historical novel, entitled "The Dead Bridal," illustrative of the most interesting period in the history of the Venitian republic, by Jonathan Freke Slingsby, of the Dublic University Magazine; and contributions from William and Mary Howitt, Percy B. St. John, FitzJames O'Brien, and other writers of distinction in America and Europe.

The following is a brief outline of the plan of the Magazine:

1. The historical department abounds with pic turesque representations of the most remarkable events which have occurred in this and other countries; accompanied with interesting anec-dotes and details from the pen of the most emi-nent writers of the day. This department contains splendid engravings, designed by the first artists in the world, and engraved in the highest style of modern art.

2. The portrait gallery. This department consists of beautifully executed portraits of the leading characters of the past and present age, espeas the world's benefactors. Each portrait is ac-companied by an interesting biographical sketch.

3. The wonders of natural history, botany, and other sciences, are developed in choice engravings of beasts, birds, fishes, insects, forest trees, flowers geological and fossil specimens, &c., with accom-

4. The triumphs of architectural art are dis played in exquisitely finished representations of cathedrals, churches, palaces, and other models f ancient and modern architectural art. The works of the great masters, selected from the principal galleries of art in the world. In general, the portrait of the masters is given, ac-companied with highly finished engraved copies of his chefs-dauvre. The scietific portions are rendered highly interesting by the familiar explanations and the numerous diagrams which accompany each sub-7. Manufactures. The principal manufacturing rocesses in use are fully explained by minute etails, and an abundance of beautiful engravings. 8. Machinery and inventions have due attention paid to them, and are described by numerous appropriate engravings.

 The literary department, independently of the various articles accompanying the illustrations, omprises original and interesting narratives, contributed by the most popular writers of the day, with numerous illustrations. In every respect, "The Illustrated Magazine of Art" is decidedly superior to any magazine of the Each monthly part contains at least thirty superb engravings, four of which are printed separately.

The greatest care is taken in every department of production. The paper is of the first manufacture, and the ink supplied from the celebrated printing ink establishment of Messrs. Lawson & Co., of Paris. Six of the monthly portions, when completed, form a volume, which, for interest, originality, value, and beauty, defy competition. It is not only an interesting family book, but a rich ornament for a drawing-room table, and a pleasant companion in the study.

The parts appear on the first of every month, at twenty-five cents each, to subscribers. Agent for Washington,

GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE.—This number opens the second volume of Graham's Magazine for 1853, and we cannot refrain from thanking most heartily both the press and our sub-scribers for the encouragement afforded us to persevere in elevating the literary and pictorial character of the work. The last volume embraced every variety of Magazine illustration, and has furnished to our readers papers of ability upon all the topics of interest which absorb the times, and also a series of articles of a purely literary character of a higher order than have been except. also a series of articles of a purely interary acter of a higher order than have heretofore been found in the monthly Magazines. ECLECTIC MAGAZINE FOR '53.—The sphere and the utility of the ECLECTIC MAGA ZINE have become too well defined to require explanation. Differing in aim from other magazines and supplying a want which is widely and increas-ingly felt by a more educated and intelligent por-tion of the community, it fills a place which could be filled in no other method than by the principle of selection which it adopts. The great reviews and magazines of Great Britain and the Continent, through which the leading minds of the age are accustomed, almost exclusively, to express themselves, are too numerous to be reprinted, as well as too costly to be imported by the general reader. They contain, likewise, much, with their desirable articles, that has but a temporary or local interest and which is worth to the American reader neithe the price nor time required to peruse it. To select from the whole field of journalism all that is really valuable, both the graver dissertations and discussions of the reviews, and the lighter and more versatile contents of the magazines, is the purpose of the ECLECTIC. The best parts of all are thus secured, without the cost or incumbrance of the local or feeble parts of any. The main portion of the ECLECTIC will continue to be composed of the great and eloquent articles of the reviews while everything valuable or brilliant in all other periodical issues, particularly of Great Britain, will be carefully presented. A richer and more valuable aggregate will thus be furnished than the contents of any single periodical could afford. Embellishments of the highest order of subject and engraving will occupy each number. Amon these will be richly engraved portraits of the most these will be richly engraved portraits of the most distinguished living characters, especially in literature, art, or statesmanship. These plates are engraved by Mr. Sartain, who has no superior in the striking and effective style of the mezzotint.

Said guaranty to be accompanied by the certificate of the United States District Judge, United States District Atterney, Navy Agent, or some officer of the general government or individual known to the Department of War, that the guarantors are able to make good their

that the guarantors are able to make good their guaranty.

All bids to be sealed and endorsed "Proposals for Brick for Washington Aqueduct." The bids will be opened in the presence of such bidders as may choose to be present. As the certainty of supply is very important, the failure of a contractor involving, probably, the stoppage of the work for a whole season, the United States reserves to itself the right to reject any or all the bids, and to make such arrangements for the supply of bricks as may be most advantageous to the work. (See extract from Engineer Department Regulations below.)

M. C. MEIGS,

M. C. MEIGS, Captain of Engineers in charge of Washington Aqueduc It is not to be understood by the above that any agent of the department is restricted to an accept ance of the lowest bid offered. The object of the dvertisement being only to give pub and invite competition, every agent will, after re-ceiving proposals, exercise a sound discretion in fixing the terms and prices of the contract, being under no obligation to confine himself to the bids under no obligation to confine himself to the bids made in answer to the advertisement, or to the persons making them.

No contract made under this department for services or supplies can be transferred in any case; must be executed by the obligor, or by some person in his name and re-spensible to him; and such obligor will be held to his legal responsibility, and all payments will be

To Capt. M. C. MEIGS, U. S. Engineers. We, the undersigned, residents of —, in the State of —, hereby jointly and severally covenant with the United States, and guarantee, in case the foregoing bid of — be accepted, that he or they will, within ten days after the acceptance of the said bid, execute the contract for the same, with good and sufficient sureties to perform the work or furnish the articles proposed in conformity to the terms of the advertisement under which it was made. And in case the said —— shall fail to enter into contract as aforesaid, we guarante to make good the difference between the offer o - and the next lowest bidder.

I hereby certify that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, the above-named guarantors are good and sufficient. E. F. Oct. 21-dt20Dec (Union, Ev. Star)

DATENT GAS REGULATOR.—The inventor (Dr. Kidder) of this economical and useful instrument deserves the thanks of the gasconsuming community. The saving effected by the use of it will be found fully 25 per cent. in every person's gas bill. It can be so adjusted as to supply the gas at any desired pressure less than that of the street, and when once adjusted, the Regulator will continue to supply the gas at that essure uniformly, without requiring further care attention, and independent of all the fluctuaor attention, and independent of all the fluctua-tions of the street pressure. An additional advan-tage obtained by this Regulator is a light of a more agreeable quality, in place of the bluish white color of the ordinary gas light, occasioned by the high pressure at which the gas is consumed. As an evidence of its practical utility, it is now in op-cration in some of the principal backs and large eration in some of the principal hotels and large stores in New York city, who all bear favorable testimony to its value. It has also received the united commendations of the press.

Hotel proprietors and storekeepers in the city of Washington and its vicinity, desirous to avail ther information by calling on the subscriber, who has fitted one of these Regulators up in his store and will give an illustration of it.

SCOTT'S WEEKLY PAPER.—The publisher of this large and popular family journal offers for the coming year (1854) a combination of literary attractions heretofore unattemped by any of the Philadelphia weeklies. Among the new features will be a new and brilliant series of original remainers by George Lippard entitled Legends. nal romances by George Lippard, entitled Legends of the Last Century. All who have read Mr. Lip-pard's celebrated "Legends of the American Revonution," published for fifty-six consecutive weeks in the "Saturday Courier," will find these pictures of French and American history endowed with all the power and brilliancy of his previous productions. The first of a series of original novellettes, called Morris Hartley, or the Knights of the Mystic Valley, by Harrison W. Ainsworth, is about to be commenced. It will be handsomely illustrated by twelve fine engravings, and its startling incidents cannot fail to elicit undivided praise. Emmerson Bennett, the distinguished novelist, and author of Viola, etc., etc., is also engaged to furnish a brilliant novellette to follow the above. Mrs. Mary Andrews Denison, author of Home Pictures, Pa-tience Worthington and her Grandmother, etc., tience Worthington and her Grandmother, etc., will continue a splendid domestic novellette, entitled the Old Ivy Grove, and H. C. Watson an illustrated story called the Two Edged Knife—a graphic picture of early life in Old Kentucky. To these will be added original contributions and selections from Mrs. Caroline Lee Hentz, Clara Clairville, Lille Lilberne, Mrs. Stowe, Grace Greenwood, and other distinguished writers, the news wood, and other distinguished writers; the news of the day, graphic editorials, full reports of the provision, money, and stock markets, letters from travelers at home and abroad, etc., etc.

Terms—One copy one year $2; two copies one year $3; four copies one year $5; nine copies one year, and one to the getter up of the club, $10; twenty copies one year and one to the getter up of the club, $20.
